LIBRARY LEAVES

MY TRUST

They come to me
This living clay,
With joy and hope and love,
Unblighted by the cynic's doubt,
Untouched by grief and care.
With eager faces turned to mine
They seek my help; and there
Mute before such utter trust
I bow my head in silent prayer.

"Lord help me make this living clay
Into works of art supreme -
Being wrought by patient toil
As vital as the humble soil.
And yet, in part, for beauty made.
Let me not my trust betray
As with this plastic mass from day to day
I mold pulsing souls,
And send them on life's complex way."
